

01 — TRIP BIO

TRIP BIO

Tell me about your trip.

Everything after this — routes, etiquette notes, recommendations — is built around these answers.

WHO'S GOING

Adults

Ages 13 and up

- 2 +

Kids

Changes pacing and venue picks

- 0 +

Days in Tokyo

How long you have

- 3 +

INTERESTS

Pick as many as you like.

Ramen

Culture

Family

Nightlife

Shopping

Nature

INDOORS OR OUTDOORS

Shapes what gets suggested when the weather turns.

Mostly outdoors

A mix

Mostly indoors

PACE

How much you want to fit into a day.

Relaxed

Balanced

Packed

BUDGET

Per person, per day.

Budget

Mid-range

Splurge

ANYTHING ELSE

Dietary needs, mobility, things you'd rather skip.

e.g. vegetarian, no long walks

Build my briefing

You can change any of this later from the Briefing screen.

2 adults · 3 days · balanced pace · Ramen, Culture

Edit

AI TRIP BRIEFING ◆ AI

Plan tomorrow with local knowledge.

Tell me your plans and interests — I'll build a route with etiquette notes built in.

- Asakusa & Ueno + ramen
- Shibuya nightlife
- Family day

"Tomorrow: Asakusa & Ueno, I love ramen"

◆ YOUR ROUTE

⋮

9:00 AM

Senso-ji Temple, Asakusa

Arrive early to beat the tour groups.

⋮

11:30 AM

Ueno Park

Cherry blossoms in spring; museums year-round.

⋮

1:00 PM

Ameyoko Market, Ueno

Covered market street beside the station — food stalls and small counters, listed in the Taito City registry.

Instead of ramen

NO OPEN DATA

No verified ramen near Ueno

We noticed you like ramen, but we couldn't find one in this area with verified data. Tokyo's open data covers museums, parks and transit, not independent restaurants — so we put Ameyoko Market on your route for lunch instead of guessing.

Request this information

この情報をリクエストする

Sent to Tokyo's open data portal. 312 travellers have asked for this.

LOCAL ETIQUETTE FOR THIS ROUTE

- At the shrine: bow once before passing through the torii gate, and rinse your hands at the water basin before approaching the main hall.

Helpful

Not accurate

- Photography: many visitors come to pray, not pose — avoid photographing people mid-prayer.

Helpful

Not accurate

- On the train: keep voices low, and offer priority seats near the doors to elderly or pregnant passengers.

Helpful

Not accurate

REVIEW YOUR DAY

0 of 3 rated

Rate the places you actually went. Your notes feed back into the etiquette tips other travellers see.

Senso-ji Temple, Asakusa

☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

Anything future travellers should know?

Ueno Park

☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

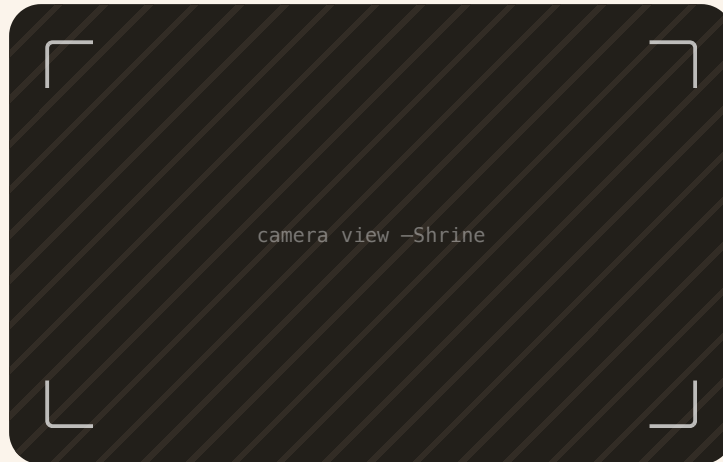

Anything future travellers should know?

Ameyoko Market, Ueno

☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

Anything future travellers should know?

Point your camera, get context.

SHRINE

Torii Gate

A torii gate marks the entrance to a Shinto shrine, separating the sacred grounds from the ordinary world outside.

WHAT TO DO

- Bow once before passing through.
- Walk along the sides of the path — the center is reserved for the deity.
- At the water basin, rinse both hands, then your mouth, before approaching the main hall.

MANNERS

- Keep your voice down near the main hall.
- Photography is usually fine, but avoid photographing people mid-prayer.

Scan next example

Notes from Yanaka Ginza

You're near this street — here's what residents want you to know.

RULE

Shop owner

Please take your trash home with you — there are no public bins on this street.

Why?

RULE

Resident

Please don't photograph inside the cat shrine without asking.

Why?

WELCOME

Shopkeeper

Kids are welcome to gently pet the neighborhood cats — just no chasing.

Why?

EVENT

Neighborhood association

Local festival (Yanaka Matsuri) this Saturday, 4–8 PM near the shrine steps.

Why?

FOR YOU ◆ Personalized

Recommended around your interests

All

Ramen

Culture

Family

Nightlife

Photo

or browse files

◆ The nearest food stop we can verify

Ameyoko Market

Ueno

Tokyo open data · verified

Covered market street beside Ueno Station with food stalls and small counters. Listed in the Taito City commercial district registry.